

Dichelostemma ida-maia

Firecracker Flower

Liliaceae

Exposure	Partial shade
Water	No summer water
Form	Bulb
Height	2 feet
Flower color	Red
Bloom time	Late spring

This rare bulb produces clusters of tubular scarlet flowers with recurved green tips. Hummingbirds visit the flowers. Grows well in containers where the details of the flowers can be appreciated.

Habitat Forest edge, coastal grassland