

Epilobium canum 'Cloverdale'

California fuchsia

Onagraceae

Exposure Sun or part shade

Water No summer water

Form Perennial

Height 1 feet

Flower color Red

Bloom time Fall

This selection of California fuchsia is low growing with particularly broad leaves. It was originally collected at Squaw Ridge near Cloverdale. It grows in full sun but can take light shade. Give it good drainage. Winter dormant.

Habitat Dry slopes