

Iris innominata - hybrid yellow form

Iridaceae

Exposure Sun or part shade

Water Occasional water

Form Perennial

Height 1 foot

Flower color Yellow

Bloom time Spring

This is one of the first Iris to bloom each year and one of the most floriferous. The large flowers are golden yellow with brown veins and slightly ruffled tepals. Grows slowly, forming dense circular clumps. Needs good drainage.

Habitat Partly shaded slopes